

Lehigh Valley Greenways

“Coloring the Conservation Conversation” Scholarship Application

Scholarships for school administrators and teachers are available towards the April 12, 2017 Coloring the Conservation Conversation workshop provided by the Lehigh Valley Greenways partnership. Awards will cover the cost of lunch and the cost of a teacher substitute. Scholarships are limited and are reviewed and awarded upon receipt. To be considered for a workshop scholarship, please submit this completed form and the letter of professional support* to:

Claire Sadler
2750 Hugh Moore Park Road
Easton, PA 18042
Claire@delawareandlehigh.org

1. Contact Information

Name _____

Title _____

School _____

School District _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____ County _____

Phone _____ Email Address _____

2. Scholarship Request (please note – scholarships are on reimbursement after D&L receives invoice)

Registration Fee	$15.00
Cost of Teacher Substitute (if applicable)
Total Amount Requested

3. Explain briefly why you want to attend this inclusion workshop, including how it might apply to your daily work.

* Please provide a letter of support from your administrator or supervisor indicating that they approve of your attendance at this workshop and that they understand the district or school upon submission of an invoice will be reimbursed for the cost of any substitute required and the registration fee.